

2019 Prince Edward Island FALL EDUCATION EVENT

Saturday, October 26, 9 a.m.–2:30 p.m.

Confederation Centre of the Arts, 145 Richmond Street, Charlottetown
902-628-6143

Morning opening 9–9:30 a.m.

We'll open the morning with a land acknowledgement, introductions and an overview of the day's program. Join us for a coffee to get things started and learn more about CHF Canada.

Morning workshop

9:30 a.m.–12 p.m.

Human rights and housing

Tom Hilton is responsible for delivering Public Education Outreach Projects at the Prince Edward Island Human Rights Commission.

Is your co-op aware of its human rights obligations? Does your co-op understand what "duty to accommodate" actually means? Join us at this introductory session to hear from a human rights expert, as we explore practical suggestions about how co-op boards can meet their duty to accommodate co-op members.

Networking lunch 12–1 p.m.

Join us for a buffet lunch and a chance to connect, chat and learn more from co-op members from across PEI.

Afternoon workshop

1–2:30 p.m.

Getting the word out: The co-op difference!

Cathy Volans is Co-ordinator, Co-operative Services at CHF Canada Atlantic.

As co-op housing members you take pride in the positive role you play in your co-op community, in your surrounding neighbourhood, and in the larger community. But it can be challenging to explain how co-ops function and why we do things the way we do. The Co-op Act, the International Co-operative Principles, and your co-op bylaws and policies spell it all out, but they don't make it any easier to explain the essentials to new members or people on the street! Using practical ideas and activities, we'll talk about how you can become a strong co-op advocate—so that your members and your community understand and appreciate the co-op difference!
